VOLUME CVI.---NO 94. ALEXANDRIA, VA., FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 21, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

Many people are afraid of ghosts. Few people are afraid of germs. Yet the ghost is a fancy and the germ is a fact. If the germ could be magnified to a size equal to its terrors it would appear more terrible than any fire-breathing dragon.

Germs can't be avoided. They are in the air we breathe, the water we drink.

The germ can only prosper when the condition of the system gives it free scope to establish itself and develop. When there is a deficiency of vital force, languor, restlessness, a sallow cheek, a hollow eye, when the appetite is poor and the sleep is broken, it is time to guard against the germ. You can fortify the body against all germs by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It increases the vital power, cleanses the system of clogging impurities, enriches the blood, puts the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition in working condition, so that the germ finds no weak or tainted spot in which to breed. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky or other intoxicant.

"Your 'Golden Medical Discovery' is a sick man's friend," writes Geo. N. Turner, Esq., (Ex. Financial Secretary International Brotherhood of Teamsters), 2208 California Street, Denver, Colo. "For the past seven years my health gradually failed. I lost my appetite, became nervous and debilitated, very despondent and unable to sleep. No medicine helped me until I tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It put new life into my veins and increased vitality until I could once more enjoy life and attend to my business. Eight bottles affected a complete cure and gladly do I recommend it."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets—only one or two a day will regulate and cleanse and invigorate a foul, bad Stomach, torpid Liver or sluggish Bowels.

COMPETENT JUDGES.

Beauty Doctors Endorse Herpicide.

Women who make a business of beautifying other women come pretty near knowing what will bring about the best results. Here are letters from two, concerning Herpicide:

"I can recommend Newbro's "Herpicide," as it stopped my hair from falling out; and, as a dressing it has no superior.

"(Signed.) Bertha A. Trullinger, "Complexion Specialist, "29½ Morrison St., Portland, Ore."

"After using one bottle of "Herpicide" my hair has stopped falling out, and my scalp is entirely free from dandruff.

"(Signed.) Grace Dodge, "Beauty Doctor, "195 Sixth St., Portland, Ore."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

STRONG Again

is what Mrs. Lucy Stovall, of Tilton, Ga., said after taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Hundreds of other weak women are being restored to perfect health by this remedy. YOU may be well if you will take it.

Indigestion causes nearly all the sickness that women have. It deprives the system of nourishment and the delicate organs peculiar to women suffer—weaken, and become diseased.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that may be eaten. It nourishes the body, and rebuilds the weak organs, restoring health and strength. Kodol cures indigestion, constipation, dyspepsia, sour risings, belching, heartburn and all stomach disorders.

Digests What You Eat

Dollar bottle holds 2½ times as much as the trial, or 50 cent size. Prepared at the Laboratory of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, U. S. A.

EXPLOSION OF OIL ENGINE

As the result of an explosion of a coal oil engine in the building of the United States Garage Company, between Third and Fourth and G and H streets northeast, Washington, last night about 7 o'clock, one man was killed, another seriously wounded, a horse had both eyes blown out, and the building was badly damaged. The dead man was J. J. Ball, the engineer, thirty-two years old. The injured man is Martin Fields, thirty-one years old. It was said by the physicians in charge at the Casualty Hospital, where Fields was taken in the patrol wagon of the Ninth precinct, that he is seriously burned about the head, but that he will probably recover.

At the time of the accident Ball and Fields were in the engine-room. Ball, the engineer, was engaged at some part of the machinery which was out of order when the explosion occurred. Fields, who is the night workman in the building, was directly behind him, with his back turned to the engine. Without the slightest warning the engine blew up with a terrific report. A crash of falling walls and of shattered glass from the skylight and the tumbling down of the big fifty-foot smokestack followed.

Hearing the noise, which is said to have shaken the neighborhood, Mr. Harry N. Johnson, the superintendent of the company, and Jess Harris, a negro workman, who were in another part of the building, ran out, thinking the whole building was going to fall in. When they reached the outside they heard screams for help coming from the engine-room. The side brick wall of the engine-room had been blown out. Clouds of steam and smoke could be seen by them issuing from the opening in the wall. Johnson and Harris hurried to the room, and through the mist and steam that filled the partly demolished room they could see the form of Fields staggering about. They ran to his assistance, and Harris carried him out into the main room of the building.

Mr. Johnson remained in the room trying to find Ball. He could hear his moans. Debris and bricks were piled up everywhere about on the floor, and the engine was torn to pieces. He finally found the engineer lying in a corner, covered by bricks and timber.

The great noise caused by the explosion attracted hundreds of persons. Some one seeing the smoke ran to fire alarm box 613 and turned in an alarm. In a few minutes the engines arrived, but there was no fire.

Before the Ninth precinct patrol wagon arrived Engineer Ball was pronounced dead by the doctor. Fields, who was suffering intense agony from his burns, was put into the wagon and hurried to the Casualty Hospital. Ball's injuries was caused by the falling of the skylight and the bricks from the side wall. There was a hole in his breast large enough to run an arm through, caused by bricks falling against him. The left side of his head was mashed flat. The other part of his body was badly cut and bruised by the glass and bricks. His face and skin were burned and blackened. It is said that he lived about fifteen minutes after being dragged from the streaming debris in the engine-room. Mr. Ball leaves a wife and two little daughters.

At the hospital, after soothing bandages had been applied to his numerous burns, Fields said that he had been looking for the explosion or for some other trouble from the engine for some time. The engine was a small one, and was used to charge the big automobile express wagons of the United States Express Company. It had a small explosion about a month ago, although no one was hurt, and no damage was done.

Fields said he knew it to be out of order, and was not surpised at all at the explosion last night. He was always afraid of it since the former explosion, and kept away from it as much as possible. It was his duty to attach the tubes from the engine to the express wagons, and charge them. He said that the noise caused by the explosion was the loudest and most deafening that he has ever heard in his life. The exact cause for the engine exploding is not yet known. It was not running at the time, although it was lighted.

In a small private stable adjoining the building was the horse of Dr. Stone. The falling wall and smokestack totally demolished the small frame structure. The animal was found under piles of bricks and dirt, and it was only after some difficulty on the part of the firemen and police that it was rescued from its torturing position, badly cut and with both eyes knocked out by the falling debris.

Mr. Johnson, the superintendent of the Garage Company, who was in the building at the time of the explosion, said that he cannot account for it. The engine was thought to be a good and safe one. He estimated the property loss to be about $2,000 partly covered by insurance.

AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 21, 1905.

A LARGE portion of the civilized world has observed today as Good Friday in remembrance of the scenes of many centuries ago which attracted no general attention at the time but which were destined to cause a revolution in thought which has come down through the ages, and animated generation after generation. The little book—of no more bulk than a dime novel—which was the outcome of the teachings of One whose missionary career did not cover three years, has been read and re-read both in translations and in the originals, and has set more pens in motion, caused more controversies and, unfortunately, superinduced the shedding of more blood than any other production in the history of man. Good Friday is not observed by many sincere followers of the Great Teacher, but it may be safe to say that a large majority of those whose interest is centred in evangelical thought venerate the day, while its influence permeates, in a measure, all ecclesiastical bodies. It is a season recognized by the greater portion of the civilized world as a time when the human mind should consider the serious side of life and concentrate on things which are calculated to do all good. The simple and natural descriptions of the great ordeals of Gethsemane and Calvary, as given by the evangelists, have been indelibly impressed upon all thoughtful readers and will continue to be as age follows age.

MRS. DONALD MCLEAN, of New York, was elected president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution yesterday evening in Washington amid tremendous applause. The administration party, as the retiring president and her candidate, Mrs. Sternberg, has been known, took their defeat regretfully but philosophically. They read their doom in the morning when the first ballot was announced. Mrs. McLean's election marks an interesting line of demarkation in the policy of the society. Hitherto it has been an official position rather than the merit of an individual which has received the honor. Mrs. McLean has been elected because the majority believes that the time is past when the society should depend on anything but its own merits. She will wear her honors with grace and dignity and is fully competent to perform the duties of her office.

A DISPATCH from Montreal brings the news of the burning of St. Ann's Convent at Genevieve and the perishing of a dozen or more of the inmates. The biting cold prevailing in that vicinity last night added to the horror. In this day many safeguards from fire have been contrived for use in public buildings and those occupied by many persons, while fire escapes have been erected and everything done to minimize danger in times of fire; yet disaster follows disasters all the same. The destruction of St. Ann's Convent is one of the saddest accidents of the present year. Most of those who perished were young people, although their elders risked their own lives in endeavors to extricate them from the flames.

FOLLOWING action of the republican party caucus, both branches of the New York Legislature recently passed the stock transfer bill and the mortgage tax bill, and Governor Higgins signed them, in spite of the organized opposition of wealthy residents of New York city. The mortgage tax law substitutes a tax of ½ of 1 per cent. for the general property tax on mortgages. The stock transfer law imposes a tax upon those who escape the burden of direct taxation. The effect of the new law, it is said, will be to greatly reduce the transactions on the New York Stock Exchange and increase them in the other exchanges in the country.

FROM REMARKS made by C. Bascom Slemp, chairman of the State republican committee, it is gathered that the idea of the republicans is to form a white man's party in the State. The negroes will not be discouraged in voting, but will not be put forward as candidates nor honored with party offices. Now the negroes, who constitute the large majority of the republican vote in the State, will realize that in Mr. Slemp being made their chairman in place of Mr. Agnew, they have not been benefitted in the least. But one of the reasons for Mr. Agnew's disfavor with the President was because he insisted upon having a white man's party!

ACCORDING to statistics recently published by the government, the American people stand fifth on the list of the nations of the world as whisky-drinkers. At the foot of the list is Italy, and at its head Austria. Almost in inverse ratio to the amount of distilled liquors consumed is the quantity of wine drunk. In this column France comes first, with an average annual per capita consumption of 34.73 gallons, while the United States is almost at the foot of the list, with an average consumption of only 0.53 gallon for each individual.

From Washington.

Washington, D. C., April 21.

In observance of Good Friday the Daughters of the American Revolution are holding no sessions of the fourteenth annual congress today.

The recess is a welcome break in the strain of one of the most exciting congresses the daughters have ever held. After an almost continuous session from 10 o'clock yesterday morning until 6:30 o'clock in the evening, the result of the hammer and tongs campaign among the candidates for president-general was announced in favor of Mrs. Donald McLean of New York.

The supporters of the New York woman had worked incessantly for their favorite and those on the other side had been equally tireless for their champions. Many women were in a state of nervous collapse when the contest was finally over. This was evidenced by the way they took victory and defeat. Women on both sides wept bitterly or laughed hysterically, whichever way their emotions happened to affect them. Mrs. McLean slept late at her apartments in the Arlington this morning. She spent the evening holding an informal reception in the hotel parlors. Hundreds of women thronged about her. She must have been kissed by ecstatic female admirers some hundreds of times. Also she received flowers in veritable truck loads.

"I have formed no policy," she said this morning. "There hasn't been time, I have been kept busy thanking those loyal women who through seven years of struggle have stood at my side. Gratitude to them is the chief emotion I feel in victory. Work on Continental Hall will be pushed and all the society undertakings will be fostered during my administration as they have in the past. I will stay in Washington some time after the congress adjourns to get in touch with my new work and plan it ahead."

No one took more joy in Mrs. McLean's victory than her husband, who has been a close attendant at the congress and has watched every move by the factions with intense interest.

Despite the fact that Mrs. Sternberg and Mrs. Lippitt moved to make the election unanimous and it was carried with a cheer, the elemental animosity raging before the announcement of the election kept right on thereafter. There was a veneer of harmony and that was all. Women who had fought Mrs. McLean for seven years couldn't love her in two minutes. Mrs. McLean in her speech recognized this and took occasion to fire a broadside or two into the defeated and demoralized Fairbank's army. The vanquished took the hot shots with grim fortitude. The fact that some of them wept is attributable only to their sex, not to lack of fortitude in misfortune.

Some women found recourse in a popular masculine solace. During Mrs. McLean's warble of triumph one staunch member of the opposition was heard drawling in sweet Virginia accents something that sounded like "dammer, dammer, dammer." She kept this up for a good while.

Another woman expressed the situation in these words:

"We've been suppressing this woman for years, and now she has won out. My husband owns racehorses. He would say Mrs. McLean had won, coming away on the bit. Now you just watch out for the next two years. Mark my word—Mrs. McLean is going to ride everyone that's been against her with whip and spur. If my husband was here, he would say we stand to be whipsawed coming and going. I guess I'll have to give up coming to the Congress for the next year or two and take to raising a flower garden about this time of year. I have a notion this woman knows how to use the spurs."

The President has appointed Wm. E. Cunningham postmaster at Louisa, Virginia.

President Shonts and Vice-President Wallace of the Panama Railroad this afternoon entered into a contract with the American Locomotive Works of Rochester, New York, to supply that road with twenty-four large double-ended Mogul engines. They will cost about $12,000 a piece. Specifications are also being prepared for the purchase of 500 freight cars, six passengers coaches, and other equipment.

The Court of Inquiry, which recently met at Fort Myer, Va., to investigate the accidental wounding of 2nd Lieutenant Donald C. Cubbison, last October at Gretna Green, Pa., during the target practice of the 4th field battery of artillery, has made its report to the War Department. The court completely vindicates Captain Stephen M. Foote, who commanded the battery, from all blame and recommends that no further proceedings be had.

Rev. D. F. Ward is Exonerated.

A dispatch from Claremont, Va., says: The controversy between Revs. D. F. Ward and Frank A. Ridout is ended on the decision of Bishop Randolph, which completely exonerates Mr. Ward from all blame. In a letter apprising Mr. Ward of his decision, the Bishop says in part:

"I believe you to be sincere and desirous to do your full duty, and to be faithful in your ministry. Go on with your work."

Rev. Mr. Ward will have full charge of the Ritchie Memoral Church, Claremont, and Grace Church, Cabin Point, on the Bishop's order. Mr. Ward will conduct the work of the two churches till formally called by the vestry.

Bishop Randolph censures the vestry of this parish for their manner of handling the unfortunate matter and in not making it clear to Mr. Ward whether he was an assistant or associate rector, a distinction which was the beginning and culmination of the unfortunate disruption.

As far as the Bishop is concerned, the episode is ended.

Death of "Virginia Carroll."

New Orleans, April 21.—J. J. Carroll, a bookmaker, and known all over the United States "as Virginia Carroll," died today of cancer. He was one of the best known bookmakers on the American turf. He came from a very prominent New Orleans family, and was educated in Virginia. He has owned some of the best race horses.

Nan Patterson and her sister, Julia Smith, the wife of J. Morgan Smith, attended church services today in the Presbyterian chapel of the Tombs in New York. The prison authorities have decided to permit the two sisters to be together.

News of the Day.

The recent earthquakes in India were recorded on a seismograph at the Johns Hopkins University.

The main building of Vanderbilt University at Nashville, Tenn., was gutted by fire yesterday, causing a loss of about $200,000. The fire originated in the second story of the building from a defective flue.

Secretary of War Taft has about decided to accept an invitation to be entertained by the Emperor Japan during his coming visit to Tokio, and he will also pay his respects to Japanese Minister of Foreign Affairs and the Minister of War.

President Harper, of Chichago University, who was thought to be too ill with cancer ever to completely recover, is making a test, it is learned, of the new radium remedy. He is going about day by day with a tiny film of radium so placed that it is hoped to disintegrate the cancerous tissue.

The dead body of an infant was found in a pasteboard box, securely wrapped in paper and tied with string, in the ladies' department of the Riggs Bank in Washington yesterday. It was removed to the morgue, and the coroner was notified. There was nothing about the bundle that would give any clew to the identity of the parents or the person who left it in the bank.

Virginia News.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to James H. Weaver, of Calverton, and Gertrude Surrich, of Leesburg.

Mr. Silas L. Johnson died at his home in Richmond last night in the eighty-first year of his age. Mr. Johnson was for years a member of the firm of Johnson, Howard and Estes, lumber dealers in that city.

Thomas Levi, 31 years old, one of the best-known young farmers of Clarke county, died Wednesday night of consumption. He leaves a widow, who was Miss Julia Peyton, four brothers and four sisters.

A fire involving $10,000 loss, and which threatened for a time the southern section of the town of Newmarket, broke out before midnight Wednesday night and destroyed several houses. Holzman's hotel was damaged.

W. G. Loving, judge of Nelson county, will soon leave the legal field to become manager of the entensive Virginia property of Thomas F. Ryan, the New York millionaire. He proposes to establish a large stable in Nelson county for raising thoroughbreds.

FAR EASTERN AFFAIRS.

Dr. Motono, the Japanese Minister to France, called on Foreign Minister Delcasse last evening and made representations regarding the prolonged presence of Rojestvensky's fleet in Kamranh bay. According to an official statement given out afterward, no protest was submitted, Japan desiring merely to receive additional assurances that France would continue to respect the laws of neutrality, which was done. This version, however, is accepted with reserve by the general public, which inclines to the view that Dr. Motono's representations took the form of a protest. Word as to how Tokio received M. Delcasse's explanations is eagerly awaited.

At the State Department in Washington it is suggested that Rojestvensky may be lingering so long in Kamranh bay to await the arrival of Admiral Nebogatoff with the Third Pacific squadron of eight ships, before he goes out to try conclusions with the Japanese.

Naval officers at Washington make the significant assertion that there is no anchorage for vessels outside the three mile limit, the inference being that if Rojestvensky's squadron is there it must be violating the rules of neutrality.

It is pointed out that if France permits the Russians to stay in Kamranh bay she may incur Great Britain's ill will. At last accounts Kojestvensky was still there.

At the Russian capital it is confidently asserted that Rojestvensky has not violated French rules of neutrality by putting in at Kamranh bay.

Mr. Button's Reply.

Joseph Button, secretary of the State democratic committee, who is also a member of that body, last night in Richmond gave out a reply to a criticism of him by Gov. Montague in his Boydton speech. The governor on that occasion criticised the propriety of the secretary of the committee using information belonging to the committee for one democrat and against another.

Mr. Button denies being the secretary or manager for Senator Martin, but says he has a right as a citizen to support him as actively as he chooses. He then carries the war into the enemy's country, and says Gov. Montague is going counter to the constitution in canvassing for one office while filling another. He quotes from the constitution that the governor shall "be ineligible to the same office for the term next succeeding that for which he was elected, and to any other office during his term of service." He also commends to the governor's attention a decision of Judge Moncure, former president of the State Supreme Court, in which he says that the governor was made ineligible to serve two successive terms to avoid exposing him to the temptation of using the means afforded him by his office to secure re-election. Mr. Button denies having any documents or information from the State committee which would benefit any candidate.

Senator Martin also made a statement to show that his claim of securing $1,700,000 for Virginia from the government was well founded, despite the governor's assertion that it amounted to only $5.50. His contention is that Virginia must have paid out that sum, had it not been established that the government was indebted to her.

No Certificates of Celibacy.

Because the American government refused to permit its diplomatic and consular agent in Peru to issue certificates of celibacy to American citizens, required by Peruvian law as a condition precedent to marriage with a Peruvian, and because the London government took a similar position, the Lima government has indefinitely suspended the law.

D. A. R.

Mrs. Donald McLean, a native of Maryland, after a contest lasting more than eight years was yesterday evening elected president-general of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution now in session in Washington. The vote on the second ballot was 362 for Mrs. McLean and 330 for Mrs. Sternberg.

When the vote was announced the delegates cheered, leaping to their feet, waving handerchiefs and some in the excitement leaped upon chairs and threw their arms wildly in the air.

Mrs. Sternberg, the defeated candidate, obtained the attention of the delegates, and in a few words of thanks to those who had worked and voted for her moved that the election of Mrs. McLean be made unanimous. Mrs. Lippitt, who withdrew from the race after the first ballot, seconded the motion. Then the excitement reached its height.

Mrs. Fairbanks put the motion and when the yeas were called the tumult shook the building. The nays were then called and, to the surprise of all and the astonishment of the two unsuccessful candidates, several voices in the rear of the hall voted in the negative. That was the signal for a hitherto unwitnessed scene in the Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution. There was a storm of hisses from the floor and from the galleries.

Mrs. Fairbanks stood with gavel upraised, a look of astonishment and disbelief on her face. She rapped loudly for order, and when the noise had somewhat subsided she said:

"It ill becomes a member of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution to show such poor taste. The president-general-elect has won a good fight, and it is not worthy of a daughter to show her ill-feeling and animosity at a time when the defeated candidates ask that the election be declared unanimous. I hope the members who voted in the negative will withdraw their votes."

There was no further demonstration on the part of the dissatisfied ones, and Mrs. McLean was escorted to the platform.

Mrs. Fairbanks then introduced Mrs. McLean as the president-general-elect of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. McLean said that she wanted to testify to the appreciation she felt for the members who had stood by her in the fight. She said the Daughters of the American Revolution was a body whose object was of such a glorious and patriotic nature that any woman would be proud to be its president-general. There had been many hard fights in the past, she said; many things had been said that were false and annoying, but at this time she wanted to say that harmony would be the one prevailing feature of her administration. She promised the completion of Continental Hall and said that the board of managers would have her complete and loyal support.

The new president-general then asked Mrs. Sternberg and Mrs. Lippitt to stand by her side, and in a few more words asked the members to believe in her, trust her and give her their support. She said she was one of the original members of the society and had witnessed its growth, and she hoped that her administration would see the fruition of a great many plans for the further development of the society. At this point she paid a tribute to Mrs. Fairbanks, and said that she would try and equal the record the former president-general had made.

Mrs. McLean's victory marks the close of the bitterest fight in the history of the Daughters of the American Revolution. It started eight years ago, when Mrs. McLean wanted to be president-general. She was defeated by Mrs. Daniel Manning. The next session re-elected Mrs. Manning. Mrs. Fairbanks and Mrs. McLean were then opposing candidates. It is asserted that Mrs. Fairbanks did not stand by an agreement made with Mrs. McLean. Then the fight started in earnest. Within the last four years it has been exciting, but until the ballot yesterday the McLean forces have been defeated.

Break in May Wheat.

The celebrated deal in May wheat, attributed to John W. Gates, received seemingly its death blow in Chicago yesterday. Possibly as much as 5,000,000 bushels for May delivery was dumped on the market. As a result there was a break of 5 cents a bushel in the price, the quotations for May falling from 113½ to 108½. Some operators professed an opinion that the slump was due to heavy eastern holders of May wheat unloading because of notable unrest in the stock market, the alleged purpose of the sellers being to get free to protect securities in Wall street. A much more prevalent belief, however, was that Gates, tiring of the burden, had shifted the May wheat deal to Armour and others. One thing was said to be certain—that Gates had sold tremendous quantities yesterday through at least one house in Chicago.

When the price for May fell under $1.10 commission people pooned wheat out on stop-loss selling orders. This caused a breath-catching slide sheer to $1.08½. The total sales of May wheat were estimated all the way from 3,000,000 to 5,000,000 bushels.

While the bear turn was on in May, the Armour people were supporting July wheat against selling drives caused by general rains. It was argued that Armour's enormous buying for July was for the Gates crowd, either covering heavy short sales made from 101 down, or possibly going long for the Wall street dealer. At the close of the session May jumped back to $1.10, leaving the net decline for the day 3½ cent. July closed less than ½ off, at 87½ and 87½.

Full of Tragic Meaning

are these lines from J. H. Simmons, of Casey, Ia. Think what might have resulted from this terrible cough if he had not taken the medicine about which he writes: "I had a fearful cough that disturbed my night's rest. Today's Telegraphic News

Japan's Note to France.

Paris, April 21.—It is reported in the lobbies of the Chamber of Deputies that Japan has sent a note to France in regard to the alleged violation of French neutrality in Indo-Chinese waters, on account of Admiral Rojestvensky's stop in that region. The terms of the note, it is said, are courteous but pressing.

Paris, April 21.—Premier Bouvier stated in the Chamber of Deputies today that the government has sent a request to Admiral Rojestvensky to leave Indo-Chinese waters which come within France's jurisdiction.

Paris, April 21.—It is reported in the Chamber of Deputies that M. Delcasse, Minister of Foreign Affairs, has resigned. The council of ministers met this afternoon and discussed the question of French neutrality. The customary note in regard to the proceedings was not issued. M. Delcasse did not attend the meeting of the ministers and this is taken as confirmation of the reports that he has resigned, the fact is also commented upon that M. Rouvier, in his answer to the interpellation of M. Deloncles on the subject of neutrality, did not allude to M. Declasse. Friends of the Foreign Minister, however, deny the reports as to his resignation, and say that he is indisposed to account for his not attending the meeting of ministers.

A semi-official note has been made public which says that the inquiry made by Dr. Motono, the Japanese minister, for information regarding the sojourn of the Russian fleet in Kamranh bay, has caused a telegram to be sent to M Beau, Governor of Indo-China, instructing him to verify the precise position of Rojestvensky's fleet. The object is to ascertain whether the Russians are within French territorial waters or are more than three miles from land. If the vessels are not within the three mile limit, the French government is not responsible. Governor Beau's reply has not yet been received. Kamranh bay has no custom house or an administrative centre, so it is difficult to obtain prompt official information. Simultaneously with the sending of the instructions to Governor Beau, the French Minister at Tokio called on Baron Komuro, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, and informed him that France has taken measures to free herself of all responsibility.

Fire in a Convent and Loss of Life.

Montreal, Canada, April 21.—St. Ann's Convent at St. Genevieve, near Montreal, was destroyed by fire early this morning. Thirteen lives are known to be lost.

Buffalo, N. Y., April 21.—A special dispatch received here says that thirty girls are believed to be dead, in the convent fire in Montreal.

Montreal, Canada, April 21.—In the burning of the St. Ann's convent at St. Genevieve, near Montreal, this morning, thirteen lives were lost as far as known, and it is feared that the number may reach twenty. The sisters of the convent had a number of old women boarders and four of these are among the dead. Sister Ragetaria, who was the mistress, lost her life in an endeavor to save the children. Of the latter nine are known to be dead. Their ages were from eleven to 18 years. The village had no fire brigade, and an effort was made to get Montreal by telephone, so that assistance could be obtained, but the effort failed, and the big building was soon a mass of smoldering ruins. Scenes of frightful suffering followed, as the night was very cold and a fierce wind was blowing. There were about 100 inmates and as they were taken from the building in their night clothing, villagers threw open their homes, and made a refuge for the young and old. There were about twenty aged women, some of them nearly 100 years old, and it is feared that the shock in some cases will prove fatal. Heroism on the part of the sisters of the convent marked the occasion.

Montreal, April 21.—A telegram message from St. Genevieve this afternoon states that the total number of dead is 13. The bodies of the persons, aged women, reported as missing, have been found in the ruins. Sisters Marie Theresa and Marie Robertine, in trying to save the children, were so seriously burned that they will in all probability die.

Big Fire in New York.

New York, April 21.—Four alarms have been turned in for a fire that is raging in Brownsville, the Jewish settlement on the outskirts of Brooklyn. The district is thickly settled. Two factories and a number of residences are in flames. The flames spread so rapidly that within a short time blocks of houses were destroyed. One fireman is reported missing.

There were many daring rescues, women and children being carried from the burning buildings partly overcome by smoke. The falling of the walls of several of the houses after they had caught fire, endangered the lives of firemen and policemen. Hurried calls were sent to hospitals and five ambulances are now at the scene to give any needed medical treatment.

Strike Called Off

Rome, April 21.—The strike of the railway employes has been broken, and will be formally called off at midnight tonight. The strike has been an absolute failure, so far as the railway men's hope of gaining their demands is concerned. The strike committee met today and discussed the situation and then decided to call off the strike. The men will make the best terms they can with the roads. The strike was inaugurated Monday night, but it proved unpopular from the first. The strikers were weakened at the outset by their failure to make all the employes obey the call to quit work. The loss to all classes through the exodus of tourists aroused popular opposition against the men. The final blow came with the passage of the bill by the chambers giving the government control of railways, which the strikers hoped to prevent by their action.

Strikers Dismissed.

St. Petersburg, April 21.—The workmen at the Putiloff works who have been on strike and have had several clashes with the troops have been dismissed. It is estimated that the shareholders in the concern lost in on day 1,000,000 roubles, as a consequence of the order given by Governor General Trepoff to close the works.

Senator Platt Sinking.

Washington, Conn., April 21.—Senator Platt's condition within the past two hours has changed very rapidly for the worst. Dr. Ford, his attending physician, says at the present rate of failing it is only a matter of short time before death ensues.

M. Witte Resigns.

London, April 21.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co. from St. Petersburg says that M. Witte, president of the committee of ministers, has resigned. Reports of M. Witte's intention to resign because he felt that he no longer enjoyed the confidence of the Czar and the ministry have been published at intervals for several months. The matter took definite form last week, when the president of the committee of ministers went to the Czar and asked to be relieved to go abroad. The Czar refused to grant this request, and it was reported that M. Witte announced that he would resign about Easter. The final slight which led to Mr Witte's determination to leave the committee, was the issuing of an imperial rescript on April 13, to Minister of the Interior Bouligan, appointing a special commission to discuss the question of land tenures for the peasants and abolishing the peasant commission of which M. Witte was president and which had been engaged for several months in studying the question with a view of suggesting needed reforms

Navy Notes.

Portsmouth, Va., April 21.—The coast defense monitor Florida, commander J. C. Fremont, of coast defense squadron, sailed from the navy yard this morning for Annapolis. The Florida forms the vanguard of the squadron which will assemble at Annapolis to receive midshipmen for the cruise during the summer.

Portsmouth, Va., April 20.—The United States gunboat Sirene, which went aground in the James river yesterday while trying to ascend to Richmond, was floated last night and returned to the naval training station at the navy yard here this morning.

Portsmouth, Va., April 21.—An auto boat built at the navy yard here for the President's yacht Sylph, in which the Roosevelt family will make a short cruise down the Potomac during the summer, made 23 knots in an hour trial trip today.

The Fleets.

London, April 21.—A message from Paris to the Central News says that the Russian Baltic fleet is still in Kamranh bay. M. Delcasse, the French Minister of Foreign Affairs, is greatly concerned over the matter. It is reported that Admiral Rojestvensky has let it be understood secretly that he has no disposition, at present, to go out into the open sea.

London, April 21.—A dispatch to the Central News from Paris states that the government has formally request the Baltic fleets to leave Kamranh bay. There is no confirmation here of the reports which have been printed that the fleet has already left Kamranh bay.

Paris, April 21.—The French Minister at Tokio has assured the Japanese government of France's neutrality.

Ton of Chocolate in Easter Rabbits.

Reading, Pa., April 21.—Reading has turned out the biggest Easter rabbit in the State. It weighs one ton and all is good to eat, for it is made of chocolate at a local candy factory. The rabbit was not cast in a mould, but was made in exactly the same manner as a sculptor would execute a model for a casting. It took one month to complete, as only a few pounds of chocolate could be prepared and used at one time.

Candymakers generally say the rabbit is the finest piece of work in its line ever done in the United States. If the material it contains were worked into the ordinary cakes of chocolate and these blocks laid side by side they would make a line three miles long.

The President's Hunting Trip.

Glenwood Springs, Col., April 21.—Secretary Loeb, after his return from the President's camp, has settled down to another three days' wait for news. As he stated to the newspaper men last night he found the President in fine fettle, delighted in having killed his bear, and proud of the second shot, which broke its back bone and put an end to its killing the dogs. On Saturday the camp will be made still further over toward Redstone. May 14, he will come to this place, to remain over night, and then the next day will start for Denver.

The War in the East

St. Petersburg, April 21.—Official dispatches from the army state that the Chinese in Manchuria are steadily becoming more arrogant toward the Russians. General Linevitch has threatened them with reprisals, but to no avail. The Chinese continue to hamper the army in every way possible, and refuse to supply goods to the Russian officers, except at exorbitant rates.

Tokio, April 21.—An imperial decree has been issued regulating the summoning of Japanese reservists for military service.

Death of Russian Minister.

Perkin, April 21.—Paul Lessar, the Russian Minister to China, whose foot was amputated recently, died here last night. M. Lessar succeeded De Giers as Minister to China, being appointed July 12th 1901. He negotiated with the Chinese the proposed amendments to the Russo-Chinese Manchurian treaty, but the war with Japan put an end to the diplomatic negotiations. M. Lessar, however, distinguished himself in dealings with the Chinese in this matter.

Renewal of Disturbances.

Vienna, April 21.—Advices received from Macedonia state that there has been a renewal of the troubles there. In revenge for the recent massacre of Bulgarians, the insurgents have sent sentences of death to the Greek consul at Monastir and the Greek metropolitan at Castoria. The announcement has also been made to these officials that a part of the insurgents' plan of campaign is the assassination of all enemies of the revolution.

Portsmouth's Residential Section Burning.

Portsmouth, Va., April 21.—Fanned by a thirty-five mile gale Portmouth's residential section is burning. The entire department is unable to cope with the flames.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Sterling M. Stuart, son of Ruth McEnery Stewart, the authoress, died at Flushing, N. Y., today of injuries received accidentally four weeks ago.

A dispatch from West Palm Beach, Fla., says that Joseph Jefferson passed another good night, and his condition this morning shows a slight improvement over yesterday.

"Billy" Rogers, the popular business manager of the Boston National League Club, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Sanford, in New York, last night, of typhoid malarial fever.

The search for bodies in the Kayford mine, near Charleston, W. Va., where an explosion occurred yesterday, was carried on as rapidly as possible during the night. This morning five unfortunate victims were found. These bodies showed signs of having been killed instantly by the explosion. The mine was very little damaged.

After a prolonged conference in Boston between Gov. Douglas and General Fitzhugh Lee, president of the corporation which has in hand the tercentennial of the foundation of Jamestown, the impression given by the executive is that Massachusetts will be represented at the exhibition in 1907. It is learned that the plan of the governor is to put the matter up to the legislature.

Charging gross frauds and unlawful manipulation of the funds of the Equitable Life, seven Chicago policy holders today brought suit in the United States Court, in that city, against the corporation, asking that the great concern be placed in the hands of a receiver. James F. Alexandria, president, and James Hazen Hyde, vice president, are made the subject of scathing accusations of misappropriation of funds and mismanagement of the business.

State Board of Education.

The State Board of Education, which meets in Richmond April 27, will investigate the charges made by Prof J. D. Eggleston, jr., a candidate for the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction, that the Virginia Teachers' Register, being sold for 75 cents a copy to each of the 9,000 teachers in the State, costs only 25 cents to produce. It was said at the department yesterday that it is not known who owns the Register copyright, but that no one connected with the department has ever owned it.

It is understood that Mr. Eggleston will be asked to appear before the board and that he is in a position to show who owns the Register. The names of school officials have been connected with the publication of this book.

The School Board at its meeting on the 27th will elect about 80 school superintendents. There are contests in Albemarle, Alexandria, Allegany, Amherst, Bedford, Bland, Botetourt, Brunswick, Buchanan, Carroll, Campbell, Craig, Dickinson, Dinwiddie, Floyd, Goochland, Gloucester, Halifax, Hanover, Henrico, Highland, King George, Lancaster, Lee, Madison, Nelson, Northampton, Orange, Patrick, Powhatan, Prince Edward, Roanoke City, Rockingham, Russell, Shenandoah, Spottsylvania, Washington and Wise.

Gold Found.

Philip Sesler, who lives near Continental, a short distance from Meyersdale, W. Va., ripped a board from the end of a log cabin on his farm and found secreted behind it $1,600 in gold. It is supposed that the money was hidden there many years ago by his grandfather, James Downer. Encouraged by his find, Sesler is carefuly examining the cabin in the hope of finding more treasure. Sesler is of a retiring disposition, and said nothing about his find until a missionary society met at his home, when he displayed the gold to his astonished hearers. Most of the money is in $10 and $20 pieces, all of them being dated prior to the '60's. James Downer, who died a number of years ago, was of a peculiar disposition, and it is said that he never deposited money in banks. At the time of his death he left a will disposing of his various properties. Sesler, who was a favorite, was the chief heir, and the cabin, where the gold was found, is located on a farm which Downer left him by will.

Three Children Burned to Death.

By the explosion of a bottle of gasoline in the home of John E. Kunkle, at Greensburg, Pa., last night, three children of the family were burned to death and a fourth so fearfully injured that her recovery is a matter of doubt. Three members of the fire department were also badly injured. Attorney A. M. Wyant and John S. Murphy, who attempted to rescue the children from the burning house, were severely burned and cut about the hands and arms by glass. The parents of the children left them in charge of Mrs. Kunkle's mother, a woman seventy-five years of age, while they went to Holy Week services in their church. Their children had been put to bed, one of them called for a drink and the grandmother, in carrying the water to the child tripped. In her effort to save herself she overturned a bottle of gasoline, and in an instant the room was ablaze. The parents arrived home just as the fire was at its height. Their grief was pitiable. The property loss is $12,000.

Six Caught in Mine.

An explosion in the mines of the Cabin Creek Mining Company, at Kayford, about 30 miles from Charleston, W. Va., on Cabin Creek branch of the Chesapeake and Ohio railway, at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon resulted in the imprisonment of 10 men. Four of the men came out shortly after the explosion uninjured, but it is feared that the other six are dead. The four miners who escaped were working in a room some distance from the others. A rescuing party has been organized and will enter the mine as soon as it is considered safe to do so, probably before morning. The cause of the explosion is not known definitely at this time, but it is believed to have been caused by powder taken into the mine for blasting. The flames which issued from the mouth of the mine set fire to the tipple, and it was entirely destroyed.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured.

"I have been subject to sciatic rheumatism for years," says E. H. Waldron of Milton Junction, Iowa. "My joints were stiff and gave me much pain and discomfort. My joints would crack when I straightened up. I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and have been thoughly cured Have not had a pain or ache from the old trouble for many months. It is certainly a most wonderful liniment." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

The Collector's Office.

The Washington correspondent of the Richmond News-Leader says: Officials in the office of the commissioner of internal revenue state that Senator Daniel is the only person who has brought before that office the question of a change in the location of the office of collector of the First district from Alexandria. Senator Daniel visited the commissioner of internal revenue a short time ago and said that if the question of a change in the headquarters of the Collector should be put before the commissioner, as he understood was contemplated, he desired the office transferred to Lynchburg, which was the natural center for the collector. He did not desire to ask that a change be made, but stated that Lynchburg wished the office should the question of a transfer come up. Louis P. Summers, the new collector, will be sworn in as collector in place of Park Agnew May 1 and will at once take charge. He is at present engaged in arranging his bond and getting everything in readiness to enter upon his duties. He has so far refrained from saying anything about removing the headquarters from Alexandria, but it is not likely that he would do so until he had become collector, when his right to make a recommendation to Commissioner Yerkes would not be disputed or out of place.

Any such recommendation would not be received with the weight that will accompany it later. There is no question that a fight will be made before Commissioner Yerkes to remove the office. Both Abingdon and Lychburg will ask for the location, and the recommendation of Mr. Summers will amount to something. It is unofficially reported that he is favorable to Abingdon. The people in the district having business with the collector will be given an opportunity to present their opinions and wishes, and Commissioner Yerkes says he will give these careful consideration, as the United States has collectors for the accommodation of the public as well as the business of the government.

Dismissed the Case.

Among the cases before Justice Caton in the Police Court yesterday morning was one which he struck from the docket as soon as possible. Two colored persons had rushed into litigation over the possession of a dog. The parties to the suit had summoned nine witnesses, male and female, a majority of whom had been cutting fish at Fishtown. They had left the piles of offal, the effluvium from which had thoroughly saturated their garments, and proceeded to the judgment seat, each with an elongated tale to unfold. The weather was becoming warmer, and as the litigants filed into court the spectators gave them a wide berth. The plaintiff was well into her preamble when Mr. Caton grew restive as the atmosphere became more and more impregnated, and fearing a swarm of shad flies was in the wake of the parties, he interrupted the deponent by asking if the cur in dispute was licensed. When told that it was not, he cut the proceedings short by dismissing the case, after which the police hurried the litigants and witnesses out of the room.

Decline in Eggpicking.

It is noticeable that eggpicking, the old-time diversion of youngsters, has in recent years waned, and seems destined to pass away entirely in the near future. Half a century ago at this season gatherings of boys could be seen in every neighborhood picking eggs. It is not so now, baseball and football having monopolized the minds of juveniles. It is not only eggpicking which has waned, but many other diversions formerly absorbed the minds of the young do not appeal to them as formerly. What was formerly known as marble time is but tamely observed, and instead of playing the old fashioned game, marbles are only used to shoot at cents. Kite time seems to be doomed also. This species of sport was indulged in to a great extent years ago by boys. Kites are now almost as rare as balloons. Topspinning, another favorite amusement, is destined to make its exit sooner or later, this species of sport attracting the attention of but few boys. Hooprolling, formerly another popular diversion, has given way to bicycles.

Easter Music.

The following is the musical programme of the Washington street, M. E. Church South:

Morning service—Anthems, "Bright Easter Moon," by E. L. Ashford; "Sing Unto the Lord," Dr. Rodney Day; solo, "He is Risen," Schnecker, by Dr. C. E. Outcalt.

Evening service—Anthems, "Joyful Easter Tide," Beirly; "He is Risen," J. S. Fearis; solo, "Easter Day has Crowned Him King," Hawthorne, Mrs. T. A. Hulfish.

Choir: Sopranos, Misses Vierkorn, Beatz and Grimes, Mrs. Outcalt and Mrs. Field; altos, Mrs. Hulfish, Mrs. Gilliania, Misses Vierkorn and Pierpoint; tenors, Messrs. Wilkins, Netherland and Hill; bassos, Mr. Dinwiddie and Dr. Outcalt. Organist, Miss Alice E. Thomas.

The Fish Market.

The mellow sunshine and southeast winds of spring time have caused no material improvement in fishing conditions. Shad are becoming scarcer and higher daily. They sold for $55 a hundred today, with a rising tendency. There has been a slight increase in the receipts of herring. They were quoted at $4a5 per thousand for small lots. Rock and perch have practically disappeared from the market. A bunch of the latter, containing eight good-size specimens, were put up at auction at Fishtown yesterday, and brought $1.15. There were no rock or perch in market this morning.

Fall of Trolley Poles.

Passengers on the 12:20 p. m. train yesterday from this city to Washington were thrown into panic while the cars were on the Long Bridge by the breaking of the trolley pole, which crashed through the roof and broke several windows. Fortunately no one was injured. A similar accident occurred to a train while near Mount Vernon Wednesday.

River Notes.

The southeast winds of the past two days have caused high tides.

The Norfolk, Baltimore and river steamers which have arrived during the past 24 hours reported nothing of interest on the river.

The steamer Wakefield, of the Randall line, has resumed her place on the line after having been overhauled.

The steamer T. V. Arrowsmith is being fitted with a new boiler.

The steamer Dennis Simmons, from Williamston, N. C., has arrived with lumber to Smoot & Co. and H. K. Field & Co.

The schooner Francis J. Ruth, from Norfolk with shingles to H. K. Field & Co., has arrived.

The schooner William Turner, loaded with lumber by H. K. Field & Co., for Rock Point, has sailed.

Yesterday M. Mitchell Davis & Son, of Solomons, launched the hull of a tugboat for Edward G. Gummell, of Washington. The hull will be towed to Baltimore to be fitted with engine and boiler by the James Clark Company, which has had several mechanics at Solomons for some time fitting the outside machinery. The owner will use the tug, which has been named after him, on the Potomac river for general towing.

Good Friday.

Today is Good Friday and services were held in the Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran churches according to the announcements published yesterday. In the Catholic churches it is the only day in the year in which the consecration of the host does not form the essential part of the celebration of mass. The special service for the day, known as the mass of the presanctified, makes provision for the communion of the celebrant from the host consecrated on Holy Thursday and reserved on the altar of repose. The rites are sad and somber, the celebrant and his assistants are clothed in black vestments and the sanctuary is without lights or incense.

To Contest Removal.

For some time it has been reported that Policeman Samuel Ticer will contest the validity of the action of the Board of Police Commissioners who, about six months ago, declared his position as well as that of James Howson vacant after May 1, 1905. Officer Ticer has consulted Mr. L. H. Machen as to the advisibility of bringing the matter before the Corporation Court. It is alleged that the proceedings were irregular, and also that Messrs. Fisher and Graham were not residents of the Third and Fourth wards which they represent, at the time the Police Board took action, by reason of the change in the ward lines.

The New Ferry.

As has heretofore been stated, plans for the new ferry house in Washington have been prepared and work on the purposed structure will be commenced soon. Within the next few days the officials of the company will visit this city for the purpose of perfecting plans for the remodeling of the Alexandria terminus. Persons in a position to know say that everything is being pushed as rapidly as possible, and Mr. J. T. Callahan, general manager, says he has selected a boat which will be brought here as soon as the terminals can be made ready.

The Easter Garter.

Among all the fresh, new belongings which the Easter girl will don on Easter morning there is not a single article in which she will rejoice more than in the dainty, fetching bit of apparel presented to her by her dearest girl friend, a bright, golden, yellow garter, "to be put on on Easter morning and worn a whole year for luck and love."

Don a yellow garter on Easter morn,
And never then 'll you be loveloru
Instead o' that love 'll shine on you,
And you'll be engaged ere the year is through.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Babetta Haas, who died Wednesday night, took place from the residence on south St. Asaph street, this afternoon, and was attended by a number of relatives, friends and acquaintances. The services were conducted by Rabbi Stern, of Washington, and the pallbearers were Messrs. N. Wellberg, J. Wolf, M. Morris, S. Bendheim, A. Kaufmann and E. Goldsmith. The interment was in the Jewish cemetery.

Personal.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Reardon, jr., have returned from their wedding tour.

Justice J. Owen Kerby continues quite ill at Mr. Pleasant, his home in Fairfax county. The recent death of his twin brother, F. A. Kerby, sr., in Washington, prostrated him and for several days, it was thought he would not recover.

Auction Sales Tomorrow.

Mr. Samuel H. Lunt, auctioneer, will offer for sale at public auction at noon tomorrow in front of the Royal street entrance to the City Hall a lot of ground on the north side of Wolfe street, near Columbus; also a lot on the northeast corner of Wolfe and Columbus streets.

Capt. R. F. Knox, auctioneer, will offer for sale at the same time and place several horses.

Easter Delicacies.

Mr. H. Bloch has made arrangements for furnishing all varieties of Easter luxuries—ice cream, water ices, cakes, confectionery, &c. There will be an attractive display of birds, rabbits and eggs in the windows of his store, 615 King street, tomorrow.

Corporation Court.

Petition of Harry H. Juelog Co. to secure possession of an electric piano attached by City Sergeant at the Alexandria House; case compromised by agreement of counsel and dismissed.

Best Cough Medicine for Children.

When you buy a cough medicine for small children you want one in which you can place implicit confidence. You want one that not only relieves but cures. You want one that is unquestionably harmless. You want one that is pleasant to take. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets all of these conditions. There is nothing so good for the coughs and colds incident to childhood. It is also a certain preventive and cure for croup, and there is no danger whatever from whooping cough when it is given. It has been used in many epidemics of that disease with perfect success. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The schools were given holiday today—Good Friday.

There were no cases before the Police Court this morning.

A brilliant meteor shot athwart the eastern sky about 8 o'clock last night and attracted some attention.

The weather this morning was fair and warm. The heavens became overcast in the afternoon, however, and showers followed.

A Capital City telephone, No. 121, has been placed in the residence of Mrs Fred Kreamer, florist, No. 114 north Fayette street.

Mr. Anthony Brenner has been awarded the contract for building an office for the Mutual Ice Company at the foot of Cameron street.

Rev. Alexander Willbanks, of Mt. Jezreel Baptist Church, will baptize a number of colored people in the river on Sunday morning at 11:30 o'clock.

Mr. Harrison, the bottle inspector at the Portner brewery, was quite painfully cut about his face yesterday by the bursting of a bottle. He was attended by Dr. Wilkins.

The railroad trestle north of Brick Haven caught fire last night. The flames were subdued before much damage was caused. The fire is supposed to have been caused by a passing locomotive.

The long-delayed change in the Southern Railway tracks between Danville and Stokesland will soon be consummated. The company is arranging to reconstruct, straighten, and double track the line between those points at an early date.

Damage to Fruit.

Capt. Henry Kirn, the largest truck raiser in the Norfolk section, estimates that the losses of farmers in Tidewater Virginia will reach the vast sum of $1,000,000. He has individual losses of several thousand dollars. Mr. Kirn, in speaking of the matter yesterday, said that until the frost of a few nights ago there had been none for four weeks, and crops, particularly strawberries, had had favorable conditions; the blossoms came early and the berries followed and were in fine condition. The frost that came Monday night did great damage, but the one of Tuesday night, Mr. Kirn thought, did even more, as there was no wind and the frost covered every section. Strawberries were ruined, potatoes cut down and beans destroyed. The farmers expected to make considerable money on beans, but did not have much hope for the potato.

Official.

AN ORDINANCE authorizing the Mayor of the city of Alexandria, Virginia, to execute a special warranty deed to Harrison Kirk, jr., for a lot of ground in the city of Alexandria, Virginia, on the west side of Union street, between King and Prince streets, on payment to the Corporation Attorney of the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars

A Solemn Dance.

They have a singular kind of dance conducted on the greens of country villages in Russia. The dancers stand apart, a knot of young men here, a knot of maidens there, each sex by itself and silent as a crowd of mutes. A piper breaks into a tune; a youth pulls off his cap and challenges his girl with a wave and bow. If the girl is willing, she waves her handkerchief in token of assent. The youth advances, takes a corner of the handkerchief in his hand and leads his lassie round and round. No word is spoken and no laugh is heard. Stiff with cords and rich with braids, the girl moves heavily by herself, going round and round and never allowing her partner to touch her hand. The pipe goes droning on for hours in the same sad key and measure, and the prize of merit in this "circling," as the dance is called, is given by spectators to the lassie who in all that summer revelry has never spoken and never smiled.

A Widower's Susceptibility.

A widower is a tame animal and stands without tying. No woman can scare him. He is overconfident, and that is his great weakness. He has been through it all and is not to be caught a second time. He feels impervious to the approaches of woman in any form or guise. The widow finds him really a rather knotty problem. He presents difficulties that are wholly absent in a man who has never felt the matrimonial halter draw. He looks upon the widow with amused indifference. But a young and attractive woman who has never been married quickly arouses his sympathies. He in nine cases out of ten shows remarkable endurance of her siege of his heart, and we all know that it is but a step from endurance to pity and thence to embraces. His doom is quickly sealed.—Washington Post.

The Simple Life Expensive.

And, really, the simple life is frightfully expensive. At a recent entertainment in this city a great luxury in the serving of the second supper was the introduction of country sausage and buckwheat cakes with maple sirup. But the sausage came from the farm of the host and represented a small fortune, as the pigs from which the piece de resistance was made were blooded animals with pedigrees. The buckwheat was grown in special fields which cost ever so much a foot, and the maple sirup was taken from trees in the most expensive Adirondack preserve. And thus can thousands of dollars be spent on the simple life, while truffles, pate, terrapin and such other rarebits of a former generation are left for the tables of the middle classes with moderate means.—Town and Country.

Picture In Disguise.

Many and strange have been the vicissitudes of some of the world's greatest pictures, and a fine painting which now graces Lord Leigh's residence in Warwickshire has an interesting history. This remarkable picture, which for some years consisted of a painting of flowers, was pronounced by an art dealer to be merely a mask for some other picture, and on his receiving permission he gradually cleaned off the flowers, discovering underneath a very fine portrait of Charles I., by Vandyke. It is supposed that the portrait was thus disguised in order to save it from destruction by the Roundheads at the time of the commonwealth.

Where We Are Unclean.

We are most particular about cleanliness in our houses—many servants must keep them swept and garnish for us—and about cleanliness in our food, eating only of first class materials, daintily prepared. But with all this delicacy of habit the most greasy savage is seraph clean compared to us in the matter of air. He breathes pure air rich in oxygen. We get together in vast herds, defile the air with all manner of disagreeable and revolting matter, including disease germs, and then contentedly breathe it.—Charlotte Perkins Gilman in Good Housekeeping.

COMMISSIONERS' SALE OF REAL ESTATE NEAR NAUCK'S STATION, ALEXANDRIA COUNTY, VIRGINIA.

By virtue of a decree entered in the chancery suit between Bertha E. Bradbury, complainant, and Charles P. Corbett and others, defendants, depending in the Circuit Court of Alexandria county, the undersigned commissioners appointed by the court to make sale of the real estate mentioned in said suit will offer for sale at public auction at the Court House in said county on the 24th day of April, 1905,

at about 12 o'clock m., certain real estate of which the late Sewell B. Corbett died seized and possessed near Nauck's Station, on the Washington and Ohio Railroad and lying on and near Four Mile Run. First. Tract number 1, beginning at the southwest corner of the tract recently conveyed to Cockrell and others and extending southeasterly to the said railroad track, reserving, however, a right of way for tracts Nos. 2 and 3, containing 23.54 acres of land with all appurtenances. Second. Tract No. 2, beginning at the northeast corner of tract No. 1 and south of the land sold to Cockrell, and running to the right of way of the railroad company, reserving a right of way for tracts Nos. 1 and 3, containing 23.045 acres of land and all appurtenances. Third. Tract No. 3, lying between the railroad and Four Mile Run, containing 26.19 acres, all of the said tracts being particularly described on the survey and plat marked No. 2, filed in the papers of said suit. Fourth, Tract No. 4, containing 13.885 acres and near the Columbia Turnpike, and being the balance of the cemetery lot and particularly described on the survey and plat marked No. 3 filed in said suit.

Terms of Sale: One-third of the purchase money cash, and the residue thereof in two equal payments at six and twelve months, bearing interest, the deferred payments to be evidenced by the notes of the purchasers and to be secured by a retention of the title to or a deed of trust on the land. Conveyancing at the cost of the purchasers

FRANCIS L. SMITH, JOHN M. JOHNSON, } Commissioners of Sale.

This is to certify that John M. Johnson, one of the commissioners of sale in the suit of Bradbury vs. Corbett and others, has executed the bond required by the decree for sale.

Wounds

and sores of any kind, caused by any kind of accident, cuts, burns, scalds, bruises, sprains, etc., are best treated by the immediate application of

HAMLINS

WIZARD OIL

This great, soothing, curative remedy relieves pain, reduces swelling and inflammation, and heals up all open wounds and sores. It is the one perfect, modern dressing, or treatment, for a wound. Its quick use will positively prevent blood poisoning. Always keep it at hand.

Says Mrs. Jessie Farris, of Elizabeth, Ky.: "My little boy was badly burned on both legs, which were so drawn out of shape that he could not even crawl. I tried many remedies without relief, but finally Hamlins Wizard Oil made a perfect cure, and he can now walk and run. We thought we should have to amputate both his legs, and feel that Hamlins Wizard Oil saved his life." Price 50c and $1.00.

Saw Young Commit Suicide.

The Vorwaerth, a Jewish newspaper published in Newark, N. J., has received a card from a Chicago man who says he thinks he was a witness to the killing of Caesar Young, for which Nan Patterson is on trial in New York city. The card is written in Hebrew, and is signed by "B. Rosen, 36½ Fourth street, Chicago."

A dispatch from Chicago says that Samuel Eisenberg, who says he saw Caesar Young kill himself while in a cab with "Nan" Patterson, in New York, was seen last night at 567 west Fourteenth street, where he is living with a relative, B. Rosen. Eisenberg is a Russian Jew, thirty-five years old, and unable to speak or write English. It was necessary to take to the house a Russian interpreter to procure his story. Eisenberg, who is a tailor, says that on the day of the shooting of Young he was walking along Broadway, on his way to 147 State street, when he passed a cab in which a man and a woman were quarreling. The woman was crying, and both of them were greatly excited. Their conduct interested Eisenberg, and he followed them to see the outcome. At one time, he said, the two engaged in a struggle, but it was of a short duration. Finally the woman, who was crying all the time, laid her head on the man's shoulder. The man then reached around to a rear pocket and drew a revolver, with which he shot himself.

Eisenberg declared that he became excited by the act and hurried away, as several people were hastening to the cab and there was no apparent need of assistance from him. Being unable to read English, he saw nothing of the case in the papers, and had nearly forgotten all about it until the other day, when glancing through a Jewish paper, he saw an account of the Patterson trial, and concluded that the couple he saw in the cab must have been Young and Nan Patterson. Eisenberg has been in Chicago only two weeks, coming direct from New York.

He does not know whether he would return to New York to testify in the case, as he had received no summons, and had not talked with anybody concerning the case. He could not understand, he said, now it could be known in New York that he had not talked with the police concerning it.

New Cure For Cancer.

All surface cancers are now known to be curable by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Jas. Walters, of Duffield, Va., writes: "I had a cancer on my lip for years, that seemed incurable, till Bucklen's Arnica Salve healed it and now it is perfectly well." Guaranteed cure for cuts and burns. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

Won a Name of Fame.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills, have been made famous by their certain yet harmless and gentle action upon the bowels and liver. They have no equal for biliousness, constipation, etc. They do not weaken the stomach, grip or make you feel sick. Once used always preferred. They strengthen. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Son, 924 Queen street.

The Right Name is DeWitt.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cools, soothes and heals cuts, burns, boils, bruises, piles and all skin diseases. K. E. Zichefoose, Adolph, W. Va., says: "My little daughter had white swelling so bad that piece after piece of bone worked out of her leg. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured her." It is the most wonderful healing salve in the world. Beware of counterfeits. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Son, 924 Queen street.

Taking Desperate Chances.

It is true that many contract colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding cold and paves the way for more serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cure of colds, can be had for a trifle? For sale by Gibson & Timman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

The Tribune Farmer has no superior anywhere as a publication for farmers and their families. Everything worth knowing about the theory or practice of farming is treated by men recognized as experts in their various lines. It keeps the farmer in touch with all the latest improvement by text and pictures, and pays special attention to the work being done at agricultural colleges all over the country. Besides all this it has features to interest the women folk. The price is $1 a year. For a free sample copy send a postal card to the New-York Tribune, New-York.
